GOOD IN SCHOOL GARDENS

Aside From Everything Else, They Bring Teachers and Parents in Closer Communication.

Where school children have been given seeds and plants to take home no way has been found to ascertain results except to visit the homes. Luckily the work provides an excuse and warrant for this, for there is something at home that belongs to the school.

Usually teachers and pupils do not meet under circumstances favorable to closer and more friendly relations—the reverse is usually the case, and the parent calls at the school. Now the teacher calls to inspect the garden, an acquaintance results, with a talk on gardening, simple but necessary directions are given for garden work, and all concerned feel better.

Civic Center Idea. The civic center idea is not new. It is as old as systematized building. The forum of a Roman city was flanked with its courts of justice and buildings of administration. The agora of Athens, as nearly as one may learn, had its temple and schools and courts of law. But in American cities only the oldest and the newest have their public buildings so grouped that each may be seen by itself and yet so that all fit into a consecutive architectural scheme.

The Soothing Spray. Of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspeakable relief to sufferers from Catarrh. Some of them describe it as a Gedsend, and no wonder. The thick, foul discharge is dislodged and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all the healing, purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to satisfy. Sold by all druggists for 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

The Spider Cheat. Many species of spiders are interesting on account of their physical construction or their habits, but the most curious specimens are probably to be found in the woods of Sumatra, and these naturalists call, not without reason, "spider cheats." This insect, in order to trap the flies, etc., on which it feeds, hides on a leaf and spins a web of neutral color, making an illusion so perfect that the prey not only does not fly, but seems attracted by the peculiar termination of the web on the edge of the leaf. This is a perfect knot in appearance and gives to the trap the general shape of a miniature palm leaf fan with indented handle.—Harper's.

The New Philippines.

The Philippines is a name familiar in American ears, but few know that the title of the "New Philippines" was once given to a large area of American soil. The first settlement in what is now Texas was made by French immigrants in the year 1685. During the next twenty-five years there was an intermittent struggle between the French and the Spanish for supremacy, resulting in favor of the latter, and in 1814 the name of the "New Philippines" was given to the country. This was its official name in Spanish records for many years and until the name of Texas, from a tribe of Indians, gradually came into vogue.—New York Press

DUST BOX FOR WINTER USE

Combination of Hard Coal Ashes and Powdered Tobacco Stems Keeps Hens Free From Lice.

Thinking the hens did not use their dust bath as much as they ought, and believing the reason for this to be because the dust material was so cold, we changed conditions in this way. A dry goods box three feet long, twenty inches wide by eighteen inches deep was obtained, says a writer in the Homestead. The bottom boards were removed and a new bottom nailed on, which was one-fourth inch thick. Another box, just enough larger to allow the first to slip inside easily, was next found. This was placed in the sunniest spot in the hen house and filled to within four inches of the top with fresh horse manure. On top of this the smaller box was set and filled to within six inches of the top with sifted hard coal ashes and some powdered tobacco stems. In a short time the ashes felt warm and the hens soon found this out. They have kept remarkably free from lice, due, we believe, to the tobacco. Fresh horse manure is put in two or three times during the winter.

No Doubt of it.

"It is, at the present rate of coal and butter."

WIDTH OF COUNTRY ROADS

Los Angeles Times Shows How Imperative Some System of Uniformity Has Become.

Some uniform width of country roads should be established and strictly adhered to on each road running from the city to sea, or to the outer boundaries of the county. It appears that some roads on our present good roads system vary from 40 to 100 feet. The first figure is as much too small as the latter is too large. It is indeed unfortunate that 70 or 80 feet is not the official width and the overhanging portion sold and the proceeds used to buy land to bring the minimum up to the standard. Now that we have a County Board of Forestry they should be planting our chief highways, but where shall trees be placed on a roadway varying in width from 40 to 100 feet? If long, graceful curves marked the transition from the width to another the problem would easily be solved, but "jogs" never!—Los Angeles Times.

These Were Happy Days.

A well-known Bostonian recently found in his trunk an old diary with the entry: "August 10, 1887. Went to the railroad station to see my sister off, and by some chance Harry Blank was there to see his sister off, and in the rush and noise and confusion we got mixed and I hugged his sister and he hugged mine."—Boston Transcript.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XI.—Second Quarter, For
June 16, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xi, 2-19.
Memory Verses, 5, 6—Golden Text,
Luke vii, 28, R. V.—Commentary
Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

According to the harmony of the gospels, the Sermon on the Mount was followed by His using Simon Peter's boat as a pulpit and then filling their net with fishes after a night of fruitless toil. After that came the healing of the leper and the palsied man, the call of Matthew and the feast he prepared in his own house, the healing of the impotent man at Bethesda, the man in the synagogue with the withered hand, the night of prayer, the choosing of the twelve, the sermon on the plain, the healing of the centurion's servant, the raising to life of the widow's son and much teaching day by day. Whether this is quite correct as to the order of events or not is not all important if we can by faith see ourselves day by day with Him who, being anointed with the Holy Ghost and with power, went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, God being with Him and doing through Him the miracles and signs and wonders (Acts x, 38; ii, 22).

There was one great and good man who did not see these wonders of His power from day to day, for he was shut up in a prison for the truth's sake, but he heard of them and evidently wondered why the one upon whom he had seen the Spirit descend like a dove and remain upon Him, who, he had been told by God, was the Messiah and whom he had pointed out as the Lamb of God (John i, 31-36), did not deliver him from prison, for it had been predicted concerning Him that He would proclaim liberty to the captives and the opening of the prison to them that are bound (Isa. lxi, 1). As far as we know Jesus never visited John in prison nor sent him any message up to this time, and the father of lies was no doubt very busy with John questioning the way of God and the love of God and insinuating that, after all, John must have been mistaken in pointing out Jesus as the Messiah. If John had not been in some way and in some measure offended with Jesus would He have sent him the message He did: "Blessed is he who shall not be offended in Me" (Verse 6). To the question of John through the two disciples whom he sent, "Art thou he that should, or do we look for another?" (verse 3) Jesus in that same hour wrought many miracles and said, "Go your way and tell John what things ye have seen and heard," and then He added the word about not being offended (Luke vii, 20-23). At one time Jesus said to the Jews, "If I do not the works of my Father believe Me not, but if I do, though ye believe not Me, believe the works that ye may know and believe that the Father is in Me and I in Him" (John x, 37, 38). All this is in accord with last week's lesson on the necessity of works as an evidence, and doing always precedes teaching (Matt. v, 19; Mark vi, 30; Acts i, 1; iv, 20; Luke xxiv, 19). Notwithstanding all His mighty works on behalf of Israel when and after He had brought them out of Egypt, they were constantly being offended with Him and murmuring against Him. They spake against Him, they believed not in Him, they provoked him, they forgot Him, and many a time He, being full of compassion, turned His anger away from them, for He remembered that they were but flesh (Ps. lxxviii). What a picture of ourselves and how much we need that absolute confidence in Him and obedience to Him at all times which will keep us from ever being offended (John xvi, 1-4).

The disciples of John having departed, Jesus said to the multitudes that John was no reed shaken with the wind nor was he such as live in kings' houses, gorgeously appareled and living delicately, but he was indeed the messenger predicted by Isaiah, and no greater prophet was ever born of woman, and if they had received him he would have been to them Elijah. Compare Matt. xvii, 12, 13, but do not fail to notice in the preceding verses that the real Elijah is yet to come. The saying, "He that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he" (verse 11), has perplexed many because they have not noticed the meaning of "in the kingdom" and have not understood that the kingdom cannot come until the king comes back again. Then the least in his resurrection glory will be greater than John was, and John himself will be greater than he ever was before. The kingdom was at hand when Jesus was on earth. It was in their midst in His person, as He said in Luke xvii, 21, margin, but they did not recognize Him or it, but by force resisted it, ill treating John and later Himself and doing to both as their rebellious, wicked hearts prompted them. He therefore told them plainly that the kingdom would not come at that time and not until His return (Luke xix, 11-13). I am continually perplexed by statements from men who ought to understand about the extension and the advancement of a kingdom that is not yet begun. Neither John nor Jesus Christ can please some people, and the number of those whom the Bible does not suit seems to be increasing, but the word of the Lord stands, and "wisdom is vindicated by her actions" (verse 19, Weymouth).
